How to use the eco-system map

This map is for community groups, third sector organisations, social enterprises and social entrepreneurs. It is a tool to navigate through the business support, learning, networking and finance available.

Featured organisations within the map are not necessarily ranked in any order of importance, but rather because of what they offer and how they relate.

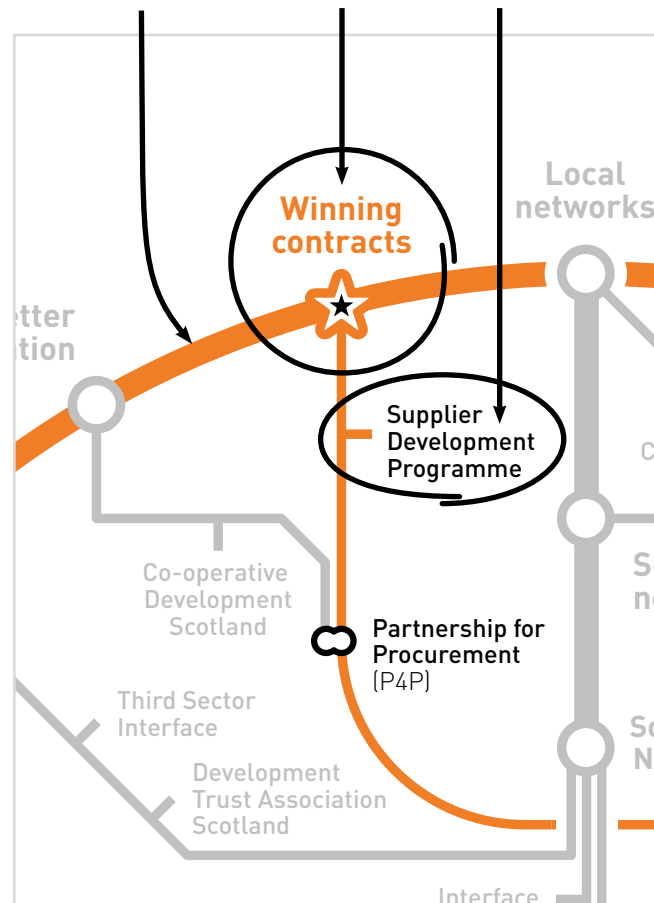

You can enter the support map at multiple points by finding the statements that are relevant to you.

Click on the name of any organisation to view more information and contact links.
